Helia wins Employer of Choice at the 2025 Insurance Business Awards

MEDIA RELEASE (26 May, Sydney): Helia has been named Employer of Choice at the 2025 Insurance Business Awards. This prestigious award, presented at the annual event recognising excellence across the Australian insurance industry, underscores Helia's commitment to fostering an exceptional workplace culture and empowering its employees.

"We are incredibly honoured to receive the 2025 Employer of Choice Award," said Nicole Lang, Chief People and Culture Officer at Helia. "This recognition is a testament to the passion, dedication and collaborative spirit of our people. Every day, our teams work together with purpose, supporting our customers to help more Australians achieve their dream of home ownership"

The Employer of Choice Award recognises companies that demonstrate outstanding dedication to leadership, employee development, health and safety, satisfaction, and competitive remuneration. Helia stood out among a strong field of finalists.

"This award highlights Helia's people-first approach, which has cultivated a supportive, inclusive, and dynamic workplace."

Helia's achievement at the 2025 Insurance Business Awards reinforces its position as a leader in the insurance industry and an employer of choice. The organisation remains committed to nurturing a workplace that empowers its people to excel while delivering innovative solutions to support their customers and home buyers.
